Leslie E. Riley is an estate planning, business attorney, and partner in Varner & Brandt's Ontario office. Leslie has focused her career on assisting clients in the areas of Probate, Trusts and Estates. She works closely with her clients in creating and modifying estate plans that fit their family dynamic and life goals, and assists fiduciaries and families in trust and estate administration. Leslie has helped many families and beneficiaries successfully navigate probate proceedings all throughout the State of California, in both simple and complex matters. She is committed to providing her clients with the tools and counsel they need, whether it is to formulate a plan for their legacy, take actions as fiduciaries, or resolve issues among family members during difficult times.

Leslie is a member of the Western San Bernardino County, Los Angeles County and Riverside County Bar Associations. She is the President of the Board of Directors for Partners Against Violence, a non-profit organization for the County of San Bernardino, the High-Desert and Coachella Valley.
