Attorney

Email: Treashal.Parmar@VarnerBrandt.com

Treashal Parmar is an attorney in Varner & Brandt's Litigation department in Riverside. Prior to joining Varner & Brandt, Treashal assisted clients civil, business, and real-estate litigation matters.

Treashal graduated from Suffolk University Law School in Boston, Massachusetts. While in law school, she competed as an advocate in Suffolk Law School's Trial Team and was an AAJ Regional Finalist. She was also certified as a Student Attorney for the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office where she argued and won numerous bail hearings, plea negotiations, and motion hearings in cases involving insurance fraud, property damage and drug related crimes.

Treashal also served as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for foster children in the County of Riverside investigating cases of juvenile abuse and neglect. She has worked with families in ensuring the safety, appropriate placement, and reunification with children.

Prior to law school, Treashal graduated from the University of California, Irvine with two bachelor's degrees in Political Science and Criminology, Law and Society. While at UCI, Treashal was a member of UCI's Mock Trial Team, Vice President of Phi Alpha Delta Pre-Law Society, and interned at the Office of Attorney General in Washington D.C. in their employment discrimination and labor law division.
